2010 SOUTHEASTERN ART SHOW & MARKET
YOUTH ENTRY AND COMPETITION RULES

1. Students must present documentation of citizenship in a federally recognized Southeastern or Woodland Native American tribe.
2. Entries for judging will be accepted beginning Wednesday, September 22, 2010 at 8:30 a.m. through Wednesday, September 29, 2010 at 4:30 p.m., at 124 E. 14th, Ada, Oklahoma. Entries will not be accepted after the official judging begins.
3. To be eligible for awards, students must be enrolled in a public, private or home schooled high school, grades 9th - 12th as of Sept. 1, 2010.
4. The student, a family member or a friend may enter the student's work for judging. The application must be filled out in full with a letter of release signed for the person entering the art work.
5. Entries for judging are limited to (4) items with maximum of two (2) entries in any one category. All entries entered for judging must be for sale or be an example for future commissioned work. Any items entered for judging:
 - a. Must be signed or hallmarked. Cast editions, graphics and photographs must also include the edition size and number if applicable.
 - b. All artwork must be for sale and must be priced accordingly.
 - c. Must not be sold before market; all sales are to be handled by the Division of Arts & Humanities.
 - d. Must not have won an award in a prior SEASAM competition.
 - e. Miniatures must be 4 ½" or less and a functional piece.
6. Joint or collaborative entries will not be accepted for this competition.
7. SEASAM will not accept: a) items that are cracked or broken, and b) items that are not in compliance with the American Indian Arts and Crafts Act, with any endangered species regulations, and/or not in compliance with federal recognition as it pertains to this show.
8. In the event of loss or damage the artist will refer to the hold harmless agreement signed by the artist after acceptance to the market.
9. Submitting a piece for consideration for judging to SEASAM does not create rights, guarantees or promises that the piece will be selected as a winner in any category.
