

Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program 2021 Information

Applications are now available for the 2021 Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program!

Beginning in June, eligible participants will be issued their 2021 farmers' market checks. The checks can be used to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables from approved local farmers.

The SFMNP application can be submitted to one of the five nutrition centers located in Ada, Ardmore, Duncan, Purcell, and Tishomingo.

The federal guidelines and the precautions, regarding the COVID-19 pandemic, will allow us to mail the 2021 SFMNP checks to participants this year.

SFMNP checks are issued and used throughout the season. Checks are used the same as cash; lost/stolen checks will not be reissued. You must list an authorized representative on your application if you wish someone to sign for and receive your benefits when in-person distribution is allowed.

Eligibility requirements:

- Native Americans (living in the Chickasaw Nation service area) 55 years of age or older with a CDIB or citizenship card and meet income guidelines.
- Non-native American, residing in a Native American household (within the Chickasaw Nation service area):
  - To qualify, the participant must be residing in a home along with a citizen of a federally recognized tribe, be 60 years of age or older and meet income guidelines.
- Disabled Chickasaw citizens:
  - 100% disabled as determined by SSI; under 55 years of age. Participants must provide proof of disability.
- Native Americans age 55 years or older and Non-Native Americans age 60 years or older, residing in a Chickasaw household:
  - To qualify, the participant must be residing in the home with a Chickasaw citizen, and meet age and income guidelines.
